Welcome to Spokane!

We love our adopted city; we love the beauty of downtown as well as the incredible scenery in the surrounding areas. Winter, spring, summer and fall each bring a vast array of fun things to see and do here. We are the SpokalendarGirls and we love photographing Spokane -- each and every day of the year!

Photo descriptions

January: views of Mt Spokane from Newman Lake
February: the fabulous Davenport Hotel
March: reflections of downtown Spokane (above) and the Japanese Garden at Manito Park (below)
April: The Spokane Club (above) and Inside River Park Square (below)
June: the fountain at Manito Park (above); and at the Arbor Crest Cliff House (below)

July: Gondola near Monroe St. bridge (above); and Rotary Fountain at Riverfront Park (below)
August: view of Spokane River from the Convention Center (above); and a sunset in the Peone valley (below)
September: rural scenes in Peone valley
October: Vista House on Mt. Spokane
November: downtown at night
December: holiday lights downtown

From the Mayor's Desk ...

Dear Friend,
Here in the "Capital City" of the Inland Northwest we take great pride in the quality of life we enjoy and savor the opportunity to share it with those who visit or choose to join us living here. A few of the many wonders that are elements of our quality of life are depicted in the beautiful photographs in this SpokalendarGirls calendar. Take time to peruse the photographs then visit as many as you can. You won't be disappointed. The trip will accent for you the amazing assets of this community and let you discover or rediscover why we say Spokane is "Near nature, near perfect".

Dennis P. Hession
Mayor
